BISHOP PHILLIPS LECTURE IN CALIFORNIA

Will Hold Annual Conference in Douglas, Arizona. Churches in Flourishing Condition.

(Special to The St. Louis Argus.)—Nashville, Tenn., August 30.—Bishop Phillips, the distinguished prelate of the C. M. E. Church, left the city several days ago for the Golden State. His itinerary will cover New Mexico, Arizona and California, where he goes to inspect the work and hold the annual conferences in Douglas, Arizona, September 27.

"It will be recalled that Bishop Phillips raised $50,000 during the Educational and Missionary Convocation at Paducah, Ky., the latter part of July. This money will be used to further the work of missions and to assist churches otherwise in debt. When it is considered that the fourth episcopal district is a great deal smaller than any of his colleagues, he is easily classed as the 'Money King' bishop of his church.

Bishop Phillips will deliver several important sermons and lectures throughout the west and he will be heard by large crowds with pleasure and profit. On two occasions Bishop Phillips delivered addresses in different parts of Europe which elicited favorable comment from the press and public. He has also lectured to distinguished American mixed audiences. The tour of the West also is a social up-raise on Phillips a cordial welcome and he will be elaborately entertained by his host of friends and admirers. He will return to Nashville during the early part of October.

Miss Lady Emma Louise Phillips accompanied the bishop as far as St. Louis, Mo., where she will remain with her sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Ivan C. James, until his return. James recently passed the Missouri Dental Board with a very high average and is now practicing in St. Louis. It will be remembered that Bishop Phillips has two sons who are physicians. Dr. J. T. Phillips, of this city, was frequently seen visiting his patients in his new Ford, while Dr. C. H. Phillips, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., makes calls in his new Dodge Brothers roadster, one of the most attractive cars on the streets of the city.

Dr. J. T. Phillips is a member of the C. M. E. Church, and is active in every movement that tends to the social uplift of the race. The Phillips family is one of the most polished in the Southland and is greatly appreciated at home and abroad.

AT THE
BOOKER WASHINGTON
THEATRE

LABOR DAY, MONDAY, SEPT. 4
Matinee Begins at 2:00 p. m.

Double Headers Sunday and Labor Day

Double-headers Sunday and Labor Day are scheduled at Federal Park. Manager Mills will give the St. Louis fans plenty of baseball. On Sunday the Giants will face the Moose Club of Illinois and Lieutenant Sampson's All-Star Army Club. The latter has just returned from a two-years' vigil at the Mexican border and has a strong aggregation of diamond star. Their sensational left-hander, Carl, will be the mound against the St. Louis boys. Carl is destined for the big league as soon as he is mustered out of service. Drake, the Dakota, Miller, wonderful find, will pilot the Giants through the mill.

On Labor Day, Monday, the Champions of the Church League of All-Stars and St. Louis will play the first game for the Ill-Mo championship, and the Giants and All Stars will clash in the second contest. These double-headers leaves the audience in a spasm of hilarity. The entire act is full of mystery and wonder and is making a tremendous hit.

Blister and Bailey, whom we have christened the Kingpins of Burlesque, close the show with a bit of comedy that well maintains their reputation. These "Beau Brummels" of the street are a pair of personified abominations, bawling the footlights. They have two hotel porters and have a barrel of fun to distribute.

This is one team that can unwind a ball of eccentricity and keep their hearers roaring without becoming vulgar. They make a feeble attempt at singing but clean up when it comes to dancing and humorous dialogue. They are receiving a healthy applause each week.

will start at 1:30. The admission will remain the same, 25 and 35 cents, Boxes 15 cents extra. The third game between the Giants and the soldiers will be played Tuesday. The three contests will be worth seeing, for Uncle Sam's boys have been playing daily and are in fine fettle.

The series between the Giants and the soldiers has been the most exciting of the season. Sunday's game was spoiled by the rain, but a record crowd saw Gatewood humiliate the visitors Monday. Wade is credited with losing Tuesday and the Cubans beat Gatewood Wednesday, but Drake scored a victory Thursday. This left the series two to two when the Argus went to press. The final and deciding game was scheduled for Friday. The Cubans will play a return engagement, beginning September 17.

It seems indeed, as if his knowledge must come from that mysterious world of which we all would know, yet longed, cannot know. The hand is so guided that failures are averted, the dark's surface is explored, its treasure laid bare to his mysterious perceptive mind, and when he gives names, dates, facts and figures, his visitor sits dumfounded at the revelations he makes to him. He is surely a man of the pastures of the future.

His ancestors were powerful mediums and have for ages handed down their wonderful power of gift from generation to generation. BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE

"HAS A HARD TO BEAT SHOW"

It is hard to beat the show that Mr. Turpin is offering his Booker Washington Theatre patrons this week. There are only three acts but they cover the regular time with a show that is brim full of well displayed talent.

Blanks and Harper open the show with a vocal repertoire every number of which is well rendered and roundly applauded. They do a little dialogue and execute some fancy dancing, rising strong.

The second act is a return engagement of Khartman the Great and his company of magic wonders. Khartman is treating the audience this week to his three great features. The first is called "The Hindu Pillory," in which one lady is securely locked in a cabinet and is soon seen in the audience while another is found locked up.

The second feature is the escape of a subject from being tightly bound while another, selected from the audience, is mysteriously transferred to the predicament. The third is "The Floating Lady." In this a lady, who has been previously hypnotized, is made to float in the air, rising from a cot. A little burlesque on this mysterious act leaves the audience in a spasm of hilarity. The entire act is full of mystery and wonder and is making a tremendous hit.

Blister and Bailey, whom we have christened the Kingpins of Burlesque, close the show with a bit of comedy that well maintains their reputation. These "Beau Brummels" of the street are a pair of personified abominations, bawling the footlights. They have two hotel porters and have a barrel of fun to distribute.

This is one team that can unwind a ball of eccentricity and keep their hearers roaring without becoming vulgar. They make a feeble attempt at singing but clean up when it comes to dancing and humorous dialogue. They are receiving a healthy applause each week.

BOOKER WASHINGTON THEATRE

GOERS MAY SEE REHEARSALS

MONDAY

Theater goers who arrive early at the Booker Washington Theatre Monday afternoon may get a chance to witness the rehearsal. Monday is Labor Day and Mr. Turpin has decided to give a holiday matinee, beginning at 2 p. m. This will be the first time a matinee has been given on Monday, because the afternoon is always given completely by opening time early commencing to be treated to a novelty that few patrons have ever experienced.

"The Yellow Menace"

The most sensational picture serial of the film world will be released Monday and Mr. Turpin will inaugurate the first episode, of three acts, with an original setting that will harmonize with the weird play. Japanese ticket sellers, door keepers and ushers will greet the patrons. The house and stage will be dressed in oriental colors and Chinese music will add to the strange scenes. "The Yellow Menace" has been produced at a big expense and labor in order to bring out in vivid realism the dire possibilities and fearful devastation resulting from an invasion of the United States by the Yellow races. Whole villages were burned—steamboats blown up—and cities destroyed for the sake of thrilling effects and the lesson to be taught. Don't fail to see this presentation Monday.

Mr. Turpin was busily engaged arranging an all-star program for next week's vaudeville bill, when the Argus went to press, but had not decided on all the acts. A big show is assured.

WILLIAM FARNUM

DIRECTION WILLIAM FOX

Manager Thomas James, by special request, has secured the picture for the Rialto Skydome and Movie Theater on the above date.

"The Nigger" is highly praised by leading colored people throughout the country. It tells of a romance of love, politics and the inevitable race taint, draws out the finer and higher qualities of human nature and ends in a race loyalty that is true to nature than any other play written with the race question as its theme.

"The Nigger" was shown at one of the churches here last winter. Those who saw it say it is a picture that every man, woman and child should see. It is a tale of a young son of a Southern plantation owner who grew to popularity and was elected governor only to be exposed by his enemies, who learn he has "colored" blood. He is engaged to a white belle of the state, who implores him to go north with her, where the taint in his blood will not be known, but he declares that he will resign his office and devote his life to the betterment of the Negro and to solving the problem of the black man. The play touches the heights and depths of human nature. It is like a mountain rooted in the living rock and rearing its summit above the clouds. Every one should see it on September 5.
